Let's Celebrate!

The Linen Hall Library invites you to help us celebrate our 225th Birthday...

The Linen Hall Library is truly a unique institution. Located in the heart of Belfast, it is the city's oldest library and the only remaining library in Ireland that raises part of its income from membership.

In 2013 we celebrate our 225th birthday and we would like to invite you to be part of our story as we move forward into the next 225 years.

In anticipation of and preparation for our upcoming birthday, we are offering your business a very special membership deal at £225 per year, held for 3 years.

Membership* will include the following benefits:

- Priority access to our well-equipped rooms for meetings, seminars, promotions etc.
- Invitations to Linen Hall Library events – an excellent way to entertain clients/suppliers informally, or a creative and enjoyable reward for you and your staff
- Assistance with events planned by your organisation involving our collections/exhibitions
- Tours and presentations about the Linen Hall Library on request
- Listing in our Corporate Membership brochure and other Library publicity
- Members' discount of 10% on all Linen Hall Library goods and services, which includes the café, function rooms, gifts and books

Most importantly, by becoming a member you are showing your support for one of the country's most iconic institutions.

A more comprehensive Corporate Membership is also available from £260. This includes book borrowing facilities. For more information please call us or visit our website at www.linenhall.com.

We offer a variety of payment options, including cheque / credit / debit cards or direct debit by either 12 monthly or one annual payment.

A special rate of subscription is available for charitable and educational bodies.

**This fixed-price promotion does not include borrowing rights, but in all other areas is comparable to the highest grade of corporate membership.*

Jewels of the Linen Hall Library

The Linen Hall Library began life as The Belfast Library and Society For Promoting Knowledge and enabled people to gain access to books and reading materials not readily available in the late 1700s. The fact that it stands today as one of the few remaining independent libraries in the world is remarkable.

The Library houses many internationally renowned collections including the Irish and Local Studies Collection, which holds the largest catalogue of books published on the island of Ireland, and the Northern Ireland Political Collection, which incorporates over 350,000 items from all sides of the recent 'Troubles'. It also works as a fully-functioning general lending library with all manner of titles from classics to modern best-sellers updated regularly.

The Library is part of the cultural fabric of Belfast and we want to keep it that way – with your support we can. If you haven't visited us in a while, give us a call, we would love to share with you all of the treasures of this special institution. There is truly something special for everyone at the Linen Hall Library.
